

~~Performance Standard 6.4 - Appeals—~~ Oral Argument

Absent unusual circumstances ~~and the consent of the client~~, appellate counsel should ~~not waive~~ request oral argument.

Counsel shall inform the client of the date, time and place scheduled for oral argument as soon as counsel receives notice from the appellate court.

In preparation for oral argument, counsel shall review the briefs and appendices of the parties, and all relevant case law.

Counsel should be accurate in referring to the record and the authorities upon which counsel relies in oral argument.

Appellate counsel should not intentionally refer to or argue on the basis of facts outside the record on appeal, unless such facts are matters of common public knowledge based on ordinary human experience or matters of which the court may take judicial notice.
