

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Commission employees may not perform work for another employer or as an independent contractor without prior notification and approval of the Commission. Working for another employer or working as an independent contractor, other than under the conditions approved may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Approved by RH on November 23rd, 2006